

PORTABLE CONTROL TOWERS

8358

(Revised September 2001)

When uncontrolled airports or large helibase operations are used to support incident operations, it may be necessary for safety to establish a portable tower. Portable towers are available from the FAA and may be ordered as outlined in Section 8380 and are also available from the California National Guard(CAN) Resources and may be ordered as outlined in the 8100 Command and Control Handbook 8100p390..
